

Dr. Horia MANIU received his „Dr. rer.nat“ doctoral degree at the Universität Kassel, Germany. He was the Chief of the HLA Typing Laboratory-Institute of Transfusion and Immunology, Kassel, Germany (1991-1998) and the Chief of the Central Department of Biomedical Accreditation-National Ministry of Health, Bonn, Germany (1998-2002). He has been working at the ICBP since 2003 and is currently the Chief of the Cell Therapy and Flow Cytometry Laboratory. He is the project director of a national cooperation grant, obtained in collaboration with clinicians, focused on the development of a human umbilical cord blood- and bone marrow-derived adult stem cell bank for research and autologous cell therapy applications